Passage

Questions

11. Iggy by Cheryl Block

"Iggy, my pet garter snake, is a lot of fun, but he always seems to be getting into trouble. "I never know where I'm going to find him next. "He has his own special bed in my room. "It's a cardboard box with a towel on the bottom to keep him warm. "But Iggy is always climbing out of his box to explore.

"Iggy likes warm places. "He loves to lie beneath the window when the sun is shining. "One day, he discovered the clothes dryer. "Mom had just finished unloading some laundry, and the dryer was nice and warm. "Iggy wriggled inside and went to sleep. "His pleasant nap was quickly cut short, however. "Mom didn't see him curled up inside and proceeded to pile another load of clothes in the dryer and turn it on. "Poor Iggy! "He was tossed and tumbled all around. "When Mom opened the door, Iggy quickly slithered out. "I could hear Mom's scream clear out in the backyard. "Iggy seemed okay after his tumble in the dryer, but I did notice that he was going around in circles more for the next few days. "He never did go in the dryer again.

5. What happened just before Mom turned on the dryer?
- A. Iggy wriggled into the dryer.

Bear's Lunch

Bear lived by himself in a den in the woods. One day, he missed his friend Squirrel. "I'll ask Squirrel to come for lunch," Bear said. Off he went to Squirrel's tree. "Why, hello, Bear," said Squirrel when he opened his door. "How are you?" "I'm fine, Squirrel," said Bear. "What's for lunch?" "I was eating some seeds," said Squirrel. "Oh dear, I don't like seeds," said Bear. "I guess I'll go home." "Goodbye, Bear," said Squirrel. "Goodbye, Squirrel," said Bear.
